

Business Model Canvas Using AI Pre-Session Reflection

What is the most important characteristic of your ideal customer?

What part of your business model do you find most challenging to predict or forecast?

Have you ever used AI tools in your business before? If yes, for what purpose?

Which area of your business do you think could benefit the most from automation or data-driven insights?

What's one question you have about using AI in business planning?

